

Being Homeless Hurts, OPERATION CHILLOUT Helps !

NEWSLETTER

JULY 2012

Annual Summer Homeless Outreach in Gear

“Guardian Angels” are watching over our homeless brothers and sisters this summer. Many faith communities have joined OPERATION CHILLOUT’S water collection and outreach effort. Many others have become delivery locations. Welcome one and all !

Including: Catholic Charities locations in Sussex County, Newton; Catholic Charities in Warren County; Diocese of Paterson parishes including: Good Shepherd, Andover; Catholic Charities, Paterson & Dover; St. Clement Martyr, Dover; St. Joseph, Newton; St. Jude, Budd Lake; St. Lawrence Martyr, Chester; St. Luke, Long Valley; St. Virgil, Morris Plains; Church of the Redeemer, Morristown; Lakewood Ministries, Lakewood; Mt. Olive Baptist, Hackensack; Mt. Olive Baptist, Dover; St. John’s Episcopal, Somerville; St. Joseph Social Service Center, Elizabeth; Sts. Philip and James, Philipsburg; The Apostles’ House, Newark; The Elizabeth Coalition - Archdiocese of Newark, Elizabeth; Trinity Lutheran, Dover; Zion Lutheran, Long Valley; St. John’s Middle School, Bedminster; Faith Foundation, Hackensack. Life saving cases of water, new tee shirts and caps as well as toiletries and basic survival gear are being distributed to military veterans, men and women in 14 NJ counties this summer through Labor Day. Bless you all !

White House Housing Initiatives Call for Feedback - July 9th.

OCO Executive Director Ray Chimileski was among more than 40 NJ community housing advocates, mortgage professionals and White House administration department heads and policy experts called to Washington, DC, to learn about and consider key legislative initiatives aimed at easing the home foreclosure and consumer credit crises and support projects for low income families and homeless veterans to become self-sufficient home owners.